

Good morning, dear Friends.

4/26/21

It's been a good week. And I trust I'm ready for this one.

I just received word this morning that the EU will likely open its borders to American tourists who have been vaccinated properly. This normalization is not yet official. Moreover we realize that any such decisions are revokable with or without much notice. But it appears to be a step in the right direction and perhaps Kristy and I can begin to make more concrete plans for our Europe trip. But first she'll need to recover from her kidney donation. Surgery is scheduled for April 28 in Minneapolis. Prayer needed for her as well as the friend for whom she is doing this..

On Friday I recorded yesterday's morning service on the in-house TV. I was informed that the daily services are scheduled to be resumed also and that I should count on doing four of them right away. They suggested that I record all four in one session, but that does not appeal to me at all and I trust it will be negotiable. I guess this will start this week also and I'll have to begin my preparation for it.

I'm looking at green leaves and green grass as I sit at my desk and it is a happy time. I'm grateful it's peaceful in Lancaster. Demonstrations have been without incident.

Thank you so much for your part in my life. I am greatly blessed. Have a wonderful week.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Henry
